Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Adult day care provides a unique modality of care to South Dakota's frail and aging citizens with a distinctive approach and focus on the elderly health, social and nutritional needs; and,

WHEREAS, Adult day care programs offer an array of services such as health screening, nutritious meals, socialization, recreational activities, transportation, exercise and supervision; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota has eight adult day care programs providing services which promote restoring, maintaining, and stimulating an individual's capacity to gain independence; and,

WHEREAS, The programs seek to create an atmosphere which enhances the value of human life and affirms the dignity of an individual:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 18 through 24, 1988, as

ADULT DAY CARE CENTER WEEK

in South Dakota, and I urge families and community organizations to volunteer in these programs.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
